ONWASA Offices Closed to the Public on September 5 and September 6

In anticipated impacts from Hurricane Dorian, ONWASA offices will be closed to the public on Thursday, September 5th and Friday, September 6th. ONWASA staff have been preparing for the possible arrival of Dorian and will be fully engaged in response and recovery activities as of Thursday morning.

ONWASA will be staffed 24/7 through the hurricane event. Both the utility's system control center as well as plants and line crews will be ready to safely respond to emergencies as weather conditions allow.

Residents are asked to please inform ONWASA of any main breaks as soon as possible during or following the event. Please call 910-455-0722 to report any breaks.

ONWASA hopes to reopen offices on Monday, September 9th at 8am.
